

Outline 9

Is Your Future in Safe Hands?

The Bible and Prophecy

Fiery Furnace - Is there a hell - Will a loving God burn sinners forever

1. Does God want to see anyone lost?

"The Lord is...not willing that should perish but that should come to repentance."

2. How does the Bible describe God's act of destruction?

"And bring to pass his act, his act."

3. What is the story of the Bible?

Eden to Eden

4. What happens if we reject salvation through Jesus Christ?

Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting, prepared for the devil and his angels:

5. When does hell occur?

As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the of this world.

6. When are the two resurrections?

Resurrection of at the of the thousand years

Resurrection of at the of the thousand years

7. How complete is the destruction of the wicked?

And these shall go away into punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

8. How should we look at Sodom and Gomorrah?

And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an unto those that after should live ungodly;

“Forever and ever” is a Biblical expression which means “until the end of the age,” not necessarily an infinite, unending period of time.

9. What does God ask us through the prophet Isaiah?

Let the wicked his way, and the unrighteous man his: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

NOTE: If your son became a hardened murderer, would you feel that he should be punished? You probably would. But would you want him to burn alive in a fire, in terrible agony, for even one day? Of course not. You could not stand that. Neither could the loving Lord stand to see His children so tortured. That would be worse than the very worst of all war atrocities. Is God like that? No indeed! An eternal hell of torment would be unbearable for God and diametrically against His character of love and justice.
